

Nashville's Hottest Rising Star to perform at Indiana County Fair August 30th

Dylan Scott, an old soul with a young spirit and one of Nashville's hottest rising stars will be performing live at the 155th annual Indiana County Fair on Wednesday August 30 at 8:00 P.M. on S & T Bank Day.

Everything that defines Dylan Scott is “country” – from his rural Louisiana upbringing of hunting, fishing and playing ball and listening to his traveling musician father’s stories from the road, you could say Scott’s arrival in Nashville was only a matter of time. From top to bottom of his self-titled debut album you can hear the humble star’s attention to detail in his expressive vocals and mature song crafting. With upbeat crowd-pleasing tunes like his first single “Crazy over me” and the soulful storytelling of “My Girl” he demonstrates his respect for traditional country as well as his embrace of several other modern genres. Please arrive early for seating and parking. You’re not going to want to miss this opportunity to see this young country star on his way to the top!

Tickets are $8.00 and parking is free. Performance will be on stage in front of the Grand Stand, at the Indiana County Fairgrounds. For more information, visit the official Indiana County Fair website: www.indianacountyfair.com
